Product Description

Bambo Nature Biodegradable Wet Wipes are made of 100% viscose derived from trees, making them an excellent alternative to the traditional bath with water and soap. The wet wipes are for personal care and developed specially with babies' sensitive skin in mind, but can be used by all ages. The wet wipes can be applied all over the body, removing dirt and stains easily, and being disposable, the wipes are also very hygienic. Our biodegradable wet wipes clean and moisture efficiently and feel soft and pleasant on the skin. When you choose our biodegradable wet wipes without any plastic content not only do you get a first-class product for personal care and body wash – you also opt for an environmentally friendly product. The product is Vegan, dermatologically tested, recommended by Asthma Allergy Nordic, and Nordic Swan Ecolabel approved. The wipes must be thrown in the waste paper bin after use. The product comes in different package sizes. For external use only. Avoid contact with eyes.
